FOR PRESIDENT JUDGE OF THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF THE 51ST JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

DONALD P. McPHERSON, Gettysburg.

SUBJECT TO THE NON PARTISAN PRIMARY.

In announcing my candidacy for President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 51st Judicial District, I wish to thank my friends who, without regard to party, have so generously expressed their approval of it and to assure every voter of Adams and Fulton counties that I shall appreciate his suffrage and support.

The Judgeship is now non-partisan—made so specifically by Act of Assembly—and if nominated and elected to that high office it will be my endeavor to observe the spirit of that act and to administer the duties of the office with fidelity and impartiality, to the end that the law may be enforced and justice done.

DONALD P. McPHERSON July 1, 1915.

GUESSWORK FINANCING

Was our national deficit during the past financial year $35,000,000, or $41,000,000, or $57,000,000?

That is a question which even the treasury officials themselves do not seem able to answer readily, if one may judge from their much-jumbled recent figures concerning the state of federal finances. One thing, however, is quite clear. There is a large deficit and the war is not wholly or even largely to blame for it. The inevitable reduction in customs revenues was foreseen eleven months ago, and Congress was duly asked to make good the deficiency by authorizing a list of emergency war taxes. This it did, and the taxes so imposed have brought in a good deal more than was expected of them. This year moreover, the federal income tax yielded handsomely, running away, above the previous year's figures. Why, then, are we so far from having both ends meet?

Several things account for the large balance on the wrong side of the national ledger. Miscalculations in the amount of income to be derived from the excess on liquors and tobacco account for some of it. This source of revenue was overestimated to the extent of twenty millions or more, a discrepancy for which there seems to be no reasonable excuse, and which affords but another example of the guesswork financing that has characterized the McAdoo regime in Washington. A postoffice deficit of about six millions helps to swell the total shortage. That, however, is only the nominal shortage in this department as it appears, according to the extraordinary methods of postal accounting. Were the postoffice department debited with every item of national expense that is properly chargeable to it, this nominal deficit would be doubled or tripled. The operation of the Panama canal, likewise, has proved an expensive matter during the past twelve-month, taking nearly thirty millions from the national income, and this apart altogether from the huge sums needed to pay interest on the construction bonds. Finally, the last session of Congress set a record for peace expenditures with appropriations which came almost to the three-quarter-billion mark.

It is convenient and plausible to put the blame for all our political and economic mishaps on the European catastrophe, but our federal deficit is one thing that it does not satisfactorily explain. Hay, hazel figuring and the lack of a national budget are chiefly responsible for it. -Boston Herald, July 8, 1915.

We Remember. Bacon—It is said that tin is used to weight silk to such an extent that many a woman's dress would assay as highly as what is considered good tin ore.

Egbert—Yes, and then the women get a lot of "tin" out of our clothes, too, you must remember.

POOR BASE RUNNING COSTS BRAVES GAME IN EXCITING CLASH

Walter Herrel in Anxiety to Score Overlooks the Third Station and Loss of Run Throws Chance to Even Matters With Hornets

When Walter Herrel failed to touch third base in the sixth inning, in attempting to score on Deal's three bagger into the right field swamp, Gettysburg lost its last chance to tie things up with Hanover and at the same time, dropped an up-hill nine inning game to the Hornets 7 to 6. The contest was replete with fast fielding and a total of 24 hits were made during the encounter, five of them being for extra bases.

Each manager used two pitchers in the game and all of the hurlers received some severe raps. To open the thing, "Ernie" Greenwell and Norman Plitt opposed each other. Right at the start the Hornets jumped the Brave pitcher for four runs, but he stuck in the affray for four more full innings and held the visitors scoreless. However fate was not so kind to Plitt, for he was driven from his post in the third inning, and "King" Miller was sent to stave off the tide of combat. He did, with a few lucky breaks, his way. Greenwell lasted until the sixth inning, when with two out and two men on, Manager Plank called him from the box and sent in "Bill" Stair, who finished the game, allowing but two hits.

Hanover tallied four in the opening stanza, like this. Crawford beat out a hit to Bigler and when "Pete" threw wild to first base, went to second. Starr sacrificed him to third and he scored on Clunk's infield hit, Clunk reaching first on the play at home. Stroh hit to Bigler, who threw him out at first, Clunk taking second. Sherman singled scoring Clunk.

"Snake" Deal took the count in the first inning with the bases full. His disgust is apparent. He got two after that however.

Eline tripled scoring Sherman and Grotye singled sending Eline across the dish. Hostetter ended the inning by hitting to Bigler.

In the first inning the Braves got three men on the sacks but failed to score. Bigler singled. Newton flied to center. Mahaffie hit to Grotye, who forced Bigler at second. Herrel and Bashore drew passes. Deal struck out.

In the second they succeeded in scoring one run, but the round ended with three runners on the paths. Oylar singled to center. The ball got through Clunk's legs, Oylar going to third. Jarosick hit for a base scoring him. "Jerry" took a second on Greenwell's hit. Bigler hit safely, filling the sacks. Mahaffie flied to Hostetter and Herrel lifted a high one to Eline. We tied matters up in the third inning. Bashore, first up, was passed. Deal hit safely to center, sending him to second. Oylar sacrificed them around a notch farther. Jarosick hit for three bases, clearing the sacks. Plitt was yanked and Miller went in. Greenwell hit in front of the plate and was thrown out by Stroh. Bigler singled scoring Jarosick, with the third run of the inning. Newton flied to Hostetter.

The Braves went one better in the fourth, scoring on Mahaffie's three bagger and Grotye's error on Deal's hit to him.

The sixth inning proved the undoing of Greenwell, a bad error by Newton getting him in the deepest part of a hole. Eline hit safely and Grotye sacrificed him to second. Hostetter walked. Miller hit to Newton and "Doc" let the pill get through him, Eline scoring, Hostetter holding third. Crawford doubled to right field scoring Hostetter. Starr hit one just out of the reach of Newton that went for a hit. In trying to score, Crawford was nailed at the plate by Bashore. Starr stole second. Clunk flied to Deal.

A promising chance to even matters up was wasted in our half of the inning and despite game efforts to score the necessary tally afterwards, there was nothing coming our way. Mahaffie opened the sixth with a single. Herrel hit over third base and was safe at first, Mahaffie going to second. Bashore flied to Starr. Deal tripled to the center field swamp and Mahaffie scored. Herrel had hours of time to reach the plate, by playing things carefully, but in his hurry stepped over third base.

"Gaxie" Eline noticed the play and called Glatts' attention to it. Herrel was called out—and so was our tying run.

Hanover got a man to third in the ninth. Clunk struck out. Stroh walked and went to third on Stair's wild pitch. Sherman fanned and Eline hit a fly to Herrel.

That "Booster Club" had a good membership for the first time and was very much in evidence.

"Archie" Stair had all kinds of stuff yesterday. Pity he couldn't have served up those "spitters" during the entire nine rounds. Plitt was as wild as a Texas pony and the Braves waited him out. When he started to groove 'em there was another tale. Bang! Bang! Bang!

The "Booster Club" was buying three baggers for $1 each. Jarosick, Deal and Mahaffie are each richer by one "green flag" as the result. "Muf" Oylar got three bases on his hit in the second that got past Clunk and the boosters gave him the same compensation.

"Bill" Scherdel was on the coaching line and showed no effect of the fight (?) of the day before. The crowd generally regretted the affair.

Few persons in the crowd saw Herrel miss third and were jubilant in the thought that the Braves had tied things up. There was a well deserved groan, when Umpire Glatts announced the truth. Oh! piffle.

Manager Starr had his line-up shaken around considerably. The change must have been lucky.

Mackert was on the bench in citizen's clothes. He was given a day of rest by Manager Starr.

The team goes to Frederick today. There is some reckoning among the fans as to the result. Two weeks ago the outcome would have been certain. But then you know old Dad Time works miracles.

WAR NEWS IN BRIEF

Great Britain's coal strike problem continues acute, 150,000 miners having one out despite the prohibitions of the war munitions act.

The German forces again are active in the region north of Warsaw, causing military observers to believe that a drive at the Polish capital from that direction may be imminent.

The Russians admit a German offensive has begun in one section where a Russian force retired to its second line positions.

Apparently the same operations, however were alluded to in the most recent German official statement as resulting in "local successes."

The German drive at the French lines in the Argonne forest region has been followed by attempts on the part of the French to regain lost ground. The latest report from Paris claims partial success in the effort.

Two hills defending Krithia on the Gallipoli peninsula were occupied by the troops of the entente allies after four assaults on Monday last, according to Athens advices received in London. Constantinople, reporting on the same engagements, says the allied attacks in which warships supported the troops, were repulsed with heavy losses.

A German submarine sank the Norwegian steamer Rym. One of the merchant men's engineers was killed. The rest of the crew was saved.

Przasnysz has been taken by the Germans almost by the inception of what appears to be a new drive at Warsaw from the North.

The official statement from Berlin announces the capture and also records successes along the East Prussian frontier to the northeast. The village of Konsya south of Kolno, has been taken and the heights of Olszauka, northeast of Suwalki, stormed. Simultaneously the Germans report the breaking down of attempts by the French to win back lost ground in the Argonne region and the infliction of heavy losses upon the attacking forces.

ARENDSVILLE

Harry Bluebaugh reports oats 5 feet, 11 inches long. Peas, beans and early planted cabbage and potatoes are an excellent crop.

The farmers have had good weather to cut and put up the wheat which they estimate at a three-fourths crop. Hay will be about a three-fourths crop in this locality.

Jacob Fidler, formerly of this place, but now of St. Louis, Mo., spent several days in the home of his cousin, A. F. Trostle.

Luther Lady has gone to Harrisburg, where he has secured employment at carpenter work.

Harvey E. Freed, wife and two daughters are guests in the home of Mr. Freed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Freed. This item appeared in an issue last week as H. E. Fissel, instead of Freed.

Mrs. Sarah Jenkins and two children are visiting her mother, Mrs. Jacob Klepper.

Edward Shaver whose barn was burned last Saturday morning, is busy getting the material together to build a new one as soon as possible.

Annie Dome, who spent several months in Washington, is home again.

PATROL SYSTEM FOR ROAD REPAIRS

and making the surface of the road smooth and even. The caretaker also will look after the edges of the road and will keep the berms clear of weeds and grass and will protect the shoulders of the road to prevent water from getting underneath. Each patrol man will be supplied with the following outfit: A small combination melting and pouring pot on wheels, a hand-pouring pot, an asphalt tapper, a wheel-barrow, a push brush, a pick, a short-handled and a long-handled shovel, a scythe, a mattock, a rake and a brush hook.

The Patrol System for the maintenance of highways is new in Pennsylvania, but has been tried with great success in other States. Chief Engineer Uhler is an enthusiastic believer in this method. When he was Maintenance Engineer in the Maryland State Highway Department—prior to his employment by the city of Philadelphia as Assistant Engineer of Highways—Mr. Uhler inaugurated the Patrol System, and as a result, the excellent condition of the Maryland highways has been kept up and is a source of comment to all tourists traveling in that State.
